Dear Pastor or Prospective Supporter,

This letter is on behalf of, Josh and Amy Jensen, who have accepted the call to serve as missionaries to Northeast Cambodia. They have been approved by an excellent mission agency, EMU, and they are now on the deputation trail seeking opportunities to present their ministry and share the love of Christ with others.

I have known Josh and Amy for almost five years as they have served faithfully at New Life Bible Church in various leadership positions (i.e. Josh- elder, Sunday school teacher, music director, evangelistic outreach; Amy- special music, Sunday school teacher, nursery director, evangelistic outreach). God has stirred their hearts and has given them a zeal for foreign missions.

Throughout this entire process of prayer, mission board application, church work, Ph.D. pursuit, raising their two precious children, and short-term missionary service, I have observed a spirit of humility, faith, joy, and eagerness to serve God in whatever capacity He wills.

They both have servants' hearts, and they both have a deep love and adoration for the Word of God and needy souls. I've also personally been impressed with their willingness to leave the comforts of home and family, to pursue a life of sacrifice and inconvenience in order to do kingdom work for Jesus Christ. I believe God will reward them for this and abundantly bless their ministry efforts.

Please consider being missionary co-laborers with this extraordinary family! And if possible, please consider giving this family an opportunity to share their vision and burden for Cambodia. I highly recommend them to you!

Joyfully serving Christ together,

John P. Lutz
